

Opening and Closing

Ceremonies CDE (rev. Oct-2017)

Purpose

The purpose of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies CDE is to help members of the officer team develop and strengthen their oral communication skills and self-confidence.

Eligibility

There are two (2) divisions for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies CDE. The middle school division is held at State Convention. The middle school participant must be an active member of a chartered Delaware FFA Chapter and enrolled in 7th-8th grades. The high school division is held in the Fall at the Delaware FFA Chapter Officer Leadership Training (COLT) (Team structure).

Event Procedures

- A. Team make-up– Each team must consist of the six (6) constitutional FFA officers a state officer will read the advisor part. The advisor part will not receive points, in other words, it will not count for or against your team.
- B. The team must be registered through the State FFA Office using the appropriate form (Middle School: State Convention Registration Form; High School: COLT Registration Form)
- C. All participants must be in official FFA dress for this event. The judges will use the official Delaware FFA Official Dress Scoring Rubric on page 6 of this manual for each team member.
- D. The order of appearances will be at random. For middle school, the appearances will be determined ahead of time by state staff. For high school, a drawing of the chapter names will be done with the first chapter picked being the first to compete, etc.
- E. Teams will not be allowed to observe other demonstrations.
- F. The team’s advisor(s) may not be present during the presentation.
- G. Any participant in possession of an electronic device in the event area is subject to disqualification.

Event Format

- A. Setup
 1. The room will be set up as outlined in the Official FFA Manual (see attached).
 2. Middle School: the room will already be setup with station markers at their respective positions.
 3. High School: The Sentinel of each FFA Chapter shall set up and take down the paraphernalia.
 4. The President’s station shall have a podium. There will be chairs for the other officer’s stations. Each team shall have its officers present at the start of the CDE or may be subject to disqualification.

B. Demonstration

After each officer is at their proper station, opening ceremonies should be performed. The student should recite their part from memory.

1. The team will perform:
 - a. Opening Ceremonies
 - b. Closing Ceremonies
2. No other business transactions should be presented. After the last tap of the gavel, the team should exit the meeting room.
3. The Sentinel shall take down the paraphernalia after the presentation

Depending on the location of the door etc.... the room set up may vary slightly. Station markers will be provided, but put into place by the chapter sentinel.

EXAMPLE ROOM SET UP

Delaware FFA Opening and Closing Ceremonies

President: (Taps gavel once, all officers sit except president; pause and tap the gavel twice)

“The _____ (meeting room, banquet hall, etc.) will come to order. We are now holding a meeting of the _____ (chapter name, district name, etc.) FFA _____ (chapter, district, etc.) Mr. / Mdm. Vice President, are all officers at their stations?”

Vice President: (Rising and facing the president) “I shall call the roll of officers, determine if they are at their stations and report back to you, Mr./Mdm. President.”

(President takes a step back from podium)

Vice President: (Calling roll of officers) “The sentinel.”

Sentinel: “Stationed by the door.”

Vice President: “Your duties there?”

Sentinel: “Through this door pass many friends of the FFA. It is my duty to see that the door is open to our friends at all times and that they are welcome. I care for the meeting room and paraphernalia. I strive to keep the room comfortable and assist the president in maintaining order.”

Vice President: “The reporter.”

Reporter: “The reporter is stationed by the flag.”

Vice President: “Why by the flag?”

Reporter: “As the flag covers the United States of America, so I strive to inform the people in order that every man, woman and child may know that the FFA is a national organization that reaches from the state of Alaska to the Virgin Islands and from the state of Maine to Hawaii.”

Vice President: “The treasurer.”

Treasurer: “Stationed at the emblem of Washington.”

Vice President: “Your duties there?”

Treasurer: “I keep a record of receipts and disbursements just as Washington kept his farm accounts—carefully and accurately. I encourage thrift among the members and strive to build up our financial standing through savings and investments. George Washington was better able to serve his country because he was financially independent.”

Vice President: “The secretary.”

Secretary: “Stationed by the ear of corn.”

Vice President: “Your duties there?”

Secretary: “I keep an accurate record of all meetings and correspond with other secretaries wherever corn is grown and FFA members meet.”

Advisor: “Here by the owl.”

Vice President: “Why stationed by the owl?”

Advisor: “The owl is a time-honored emblem of knowledge and wisdom. Being older than the rest of you, I am asked to advise you from time to time, as the need arises. I hope that my advice will always be based on true knowledge and ripened with wisdom.”

“Mr./Mdm. Vice President, why do you keep a plow at your station?”

Vice President: “The plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil. Without labor, neither knowledge nor wisdom can accomplish much. My duties require me to assist at all times in directing the work of our organization. I preside over meetings in the absence of our president, whose place is beneath the rising sun.”

Advisor: “Why is the president so stationed?”

Vice President: “The rising sun is the token of a new era in agriculture. If we will follow the leadership of our president, we shall be led out of the darkness of selfishness and into the glorious sunlight of brotherhood and cooperation. Mr./Mdm. President, all officers are at their stations.”

President: (Approaches podium and faces the vice president) “Thank you, Mr./Mdm. Vice President.”

(All take seats at tap of gavel.) “The secretary will call the roll of members.”

Secretary: “There are _____ members and _____ guests present, Mr./Mdm. President.”

President: “Thank you. FFA members, why are we here?” (All members stand at three taps of gavel.)

All members in unison: “To practice brotherhood, honor agricultural opportunities and responsibilities and develop those qualities of leadership which an FFA member should possess.” (All are seated at one tap of gavel.)

President: “May we accomplish our purposes. I now declare this meeting of the _____ FFA Chapter duly open for the transaction of business, or attention to any matters which may properly be presented.”

President: “Mr./Mdm. Secretary, do you have a record of any further business which should now be transacted?”

Secretary: (Rises, replies and is seated.) “I have none, Mr./Mdm. President.”

President: “Does any member know of any new or unfinished business which should properly come before this meeting? (If no answer, proceed as follows.)

“We are about to adjourn this meeting of the _____ (chapter name, district name, etc.) FFA _____ (chapter, district, etc.). As we mingle with others, let us be diligent in labor, just in our dealings, courteous to everyone and, above all, honest and fair in the game of life. Fellow members and guests, join me in a salute to our flag.”

(Tap three times with gavel to call members to stand)

All in unison: “I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

President: “I now declare this meeting adjourned.” (Tap once with gavel and the meeting is adjourned.)
