

DELAWARE ASSOCIATION OF FFA CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

1998-99

revised 3/97, 3/99, 3/01, 3/06, 5/10, 1/12

ARTICLE I. NAME, PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF THE ORGANIZATION

Section A. The name of the organization is Delaware Association of FFA. The letters "FFA" are used to designate the organization, its units or members thereof.

Section B. The Objectives of the Organization

The objectives of the organization shall be consistent with Section 3 of the organization's federal charter, Public Law 81-740. The organization shall cooperate with national and state government agencies and officials for vocational education in accomplishing the following objectives:

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional programs in agricultural education which prepare students for a wide range of careers in agriculture, agribusiness, and other agriculture-related occupations.
2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and in their work by developing desirable work habits and the effective usage of their time; by learning to assume responsibility; and by developing competencies in communications, human relations, and other social abilities leading to the intelligent choice of a career and successful employment or entrepreneurship in the agricultural industry.
3. To provide agriculture-related programs and activities which will develop pride, responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism, and thrift, and which will improve the economic, environmental, recreational, and human resources of the community.
4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership and other individual and group activities by providing awards to deserving members and chapters.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION

Section A. The Delaware Association of FFA is a State organization of affiliated local chapters in schools having organized instruction in agriscience education which includes preparing for careers, building awareness, and developing leadership in agribusiness, biotechnology, food science, production agriculture, agricultural supplies and services, agricultural mechanization, agricultural products, processing and marketing, horticulture, renewable natural resources, forestry and others; representing those programs that qualify for assistance under federal vocational occupational education legislation.

Section B. Local FFA chapters shall not be organized in schools where systematic instruction in agriscience education is not given under the provisions of the Vocational Education Act.

Section C. Members of local chapters shall meet, organize, and accept the State Constitution, elect officers from active membership, set up a program of activities, and then apply to the State Secretary for membership in the State organization. After this application has been approved by the State Secretary and State Executive Body, the members of the local chapter may then be known as "Future Farmers of America" or members of the FFA.

Section D. Each chapter shall consider itself a unit in the State organization. It shall prepare and adopt its own constitution. This constitution shall not conflict with the State or National Constitution.

Section E. Collegiate chapters may be established in two or four-year institutions where agriculture courses are taught. Membership shall be open to students enrolled in agricultural courses or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture.

Each collegiate chapter shall be chartered by and maintained under the authority of the Delaware Association of FFA.

All activities of the collegiate chapter of FFA shall be in harmony with the purposes, principles and ideals of the FFA organization.

Activities for FFA collegiate chapter members shall be based upon the needs and interests of its members.

Dues from collegiate and post-secondary members may be used to promote activities of collegiate and post-secondary chapters.

Collegiate chapter members shall pay National FFA dues to be forwarded through the State Association Office.

ARTICLE III. PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING STANDING OF CHAPTERS AND MEMBERS

Section A. A local chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State Association when the following general conditions are met:

1. All current state dues and money owed to the State Association have been paid. All national dues have been paid by one month prior to the annual Delaware State FFA Convention.
2. All reports have been submitted as required by the State Association.
3. No provisions of chapter constitutions are in conflict with the State and National FFA Constitutions, By-laws or the Federal Charter. Activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the National Organization.
4. The governing body of the State Association shall have the power to suspend local charters upon receipt of evidence of infringement of the provisions of the State or National FFA Constitutions. A report on all suspensions shall be presented to the next succeeding State Convention.

In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association one month prior to the annual Delaware Association of FFA Convention, the delegates in the State Convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the State governing body, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the State Convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof, shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the State governing body, not earlier than 10 days after the closing date of the State Convention during which it was not in good standing.

Members of a local chapter not in good standing, may participate in contests, but their scores will not count.

In case a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located is discontinued, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially, for a period not to exceed 36 months from date of the discontinuance of the department, providing proper supervision and guidance can be given to the chapter work by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the State Advisor. Local chapter charters must be surrendered to the State Advisor at the end of the 36 month period if the local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school at that time.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERSHIP

Section A. Membership in this organization shall be of five kinds:

Active, Alumni, Collegiate, Honorary; and Associative (State only).

Section B. Active membership - To be eligible for active membership in a chartered FFA chapter, a student must be enrolled in a secondary agriscience program. Grades 7-12 are considered secondary programs.

To become an active member and retain membership, a student must:

1. While in school, be enrolled in at least one agricultural education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study; either course must include a supervised agricultural experience program, the objective of which is preparation for an agricultural career.
2. Show an interest in the affairs of the organization by attending meetings, striving for degrees of membership, and participating in organized activities of the chapter.
3. Pay all current national dues by the date determined by the chapter.
4. Display conduct consistent with the ideals and purposes of the National and State FFA Organizations.

A member may retain active membership continuously throughout his/her entire high school career and until November 30, following the fourth National FFA Convention after graduation from high school. This person must be in good standing with the State Association.

A member who is in good standing at the time of induction into the Armed Forces of the United States of America or into the FFA international program shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. Time spent in the Armed Forces should not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of four conventions after the first National Convention following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members using this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advance(d) degrees of membership, must resume active participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from service or participating in the FFA international program for six months shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual may retain their active membership beyond his or her 23rd birthday.

Section C. "Alumni Membership." Membership shall be open to former active FFA and NFA members, collegiate or honorary FFA and NFA members, present and former professional agricultural education educators, parents of FFA members, and others interested in and supportive of the FFA.

Section D. "Collegiate Membership." Collegiate membership shall be open to students who are enrolled in agricultural courses or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture at a two- or four-year postsecondary institution having a collegiate FFA chapter.
